

Mission

The Great Commission | Matthew 28:16-20

Big Idea

Jesus gives us a job to do.

Music

Cheer Each Other On – The Meeting House Kids

Key Verse

“How beautiful are the feet of those who bring good news!”
– Romans 10:15

Start: Maze

Supplies:

- Maze
- Crayon or marker

Invite your child for this time together:

- Show them the maze and invite them to try to get through the maze.
- As they do, let them know that the Big Idea is Jesus gives us a job to do. We can tell others about Jesus!
- Help your child make it through the maze and encourage them as they do so.

Watch:

Watch this week’s video.

Prayer:

Write out prayers for help and thanks onto sticky notes. Choose a wall or special place in your home to stick them. Make these a visual reminder of what your family is praying and thankful for over the week or month.

Craft: Megaphone Craft

Supplies:

- Megaphone activity page
- Crayons or markers
- Tape
- Stickers (optional)

Prep: print the megaphone activity page.

- Invite your child to decorate the activity page.
- Read the text on the page with them.
- As they decorate, talk about the Bible story.
- Ask your child: what job did Jesus give us to do?
- When they are done decorating, show them how to roll it into a megaphone and help tape it together.
- Then, encourage your child to hold it up to their mouth and shout “Jesus loves you!” into it.

Key Verse Activity

Supplies:

- none

Hint:

Help your child know that the Good News is that Jesus came to show us God's love, rescue us from sin and teach us how to live and serve.

Help your child learn the Key Verse using the actions below:

"How [hold your hands palms up as if asking a question]

beautiful [point at your face and smile]

are the feet [stamp your feet]

of those [point to others]

who bring [pull your arms back in towards you]

good news!" [pump your fists in the air]

Romans 10:15 [open hands like a book]
